

Remembering David

A game about remembering those you've lost

By SmallRedRobin13

How to play:

Roll a d6 and follow the instructions based on your roll. You do not have to do anything too big, and it's okay if you cannot do that thing for some reason. Instead, do something similar that you feel allows you to remember that person.

You've got this.

Remember a small detail about them (what their smiles looked like, how they did their hair, etc.)

2

Look through items/old photos that remind you of them.

*Remember a funny story about them.
You don't have to have been there for the actual event that created the funny story, so long as the story makes you smile.*

Find an item that reminds you of that person and place it somewhere you'll see it every day for a week.

5

Remember a happy memory of the two of you.

6

Visit a place that reminds you of them.
